

Vanilla Haskell: values, types and kinds are strictly separated.

Values
Types
Kind

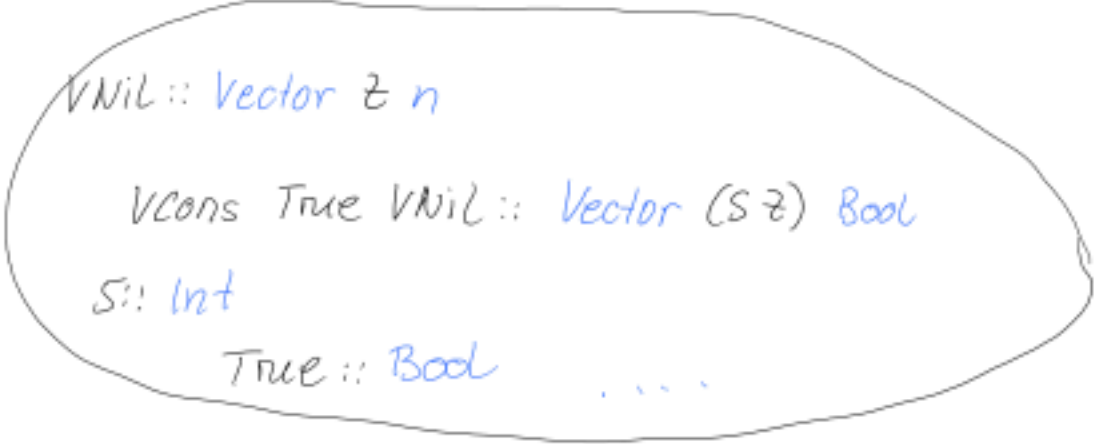

Values have types

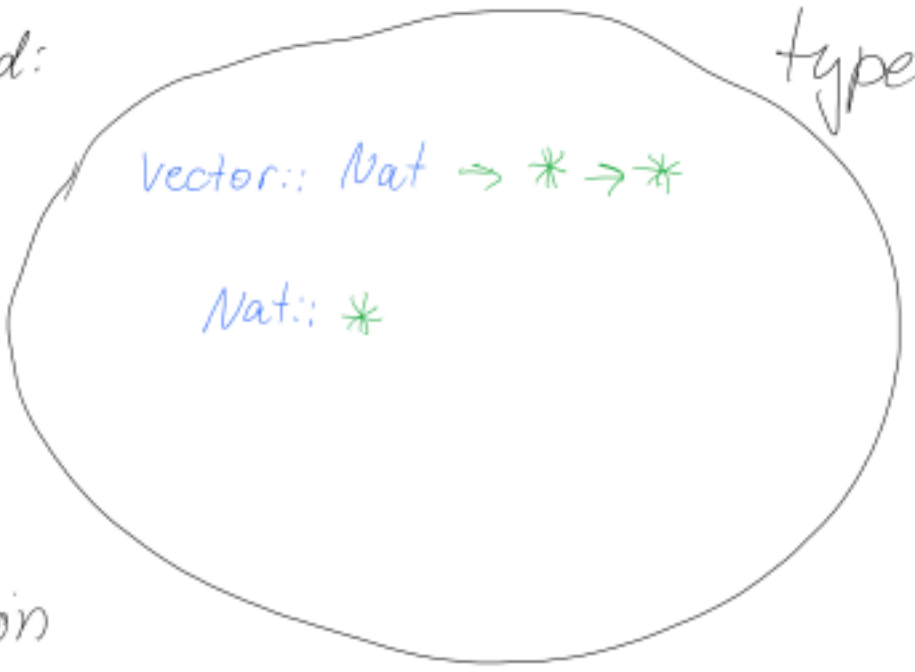

Types have kinds

With data kinds, the separation is lifted:

Values can appear at type position

types at kind pos

kinds